May 11

Bear had 5 strawberries.

He ate 3.

Rabbit had 4 strawberries.

He ate 3.

How many strawberries do both animals have left altogether?

Draw a picture to show your thinking:

Show your thinking using tally marks:

May 12

Count the balloons in the box below. How many are there? _____

Draw the balloons on the ten's frame below.

What do you notice?

10-frame:

May 13

There are 2 birds and 2 bunnies at the party

There are 3 hats

How many more hats do they need?

Draw a picture to show your answer:

May 14

There were 4 frogs in the pond.

3 jumped out.

4 more jumped in.

How many frogs are in the pond now?

Draw a picture:

Write a number sentence:

May 15

Explain your answer

May 18

There are 6 crayons in the bucket.

Some are green.

Some are purple.

How many different ways can you get 6 green and purple crayons?

Draw the different ways you can get 6 crayons using only green and purple

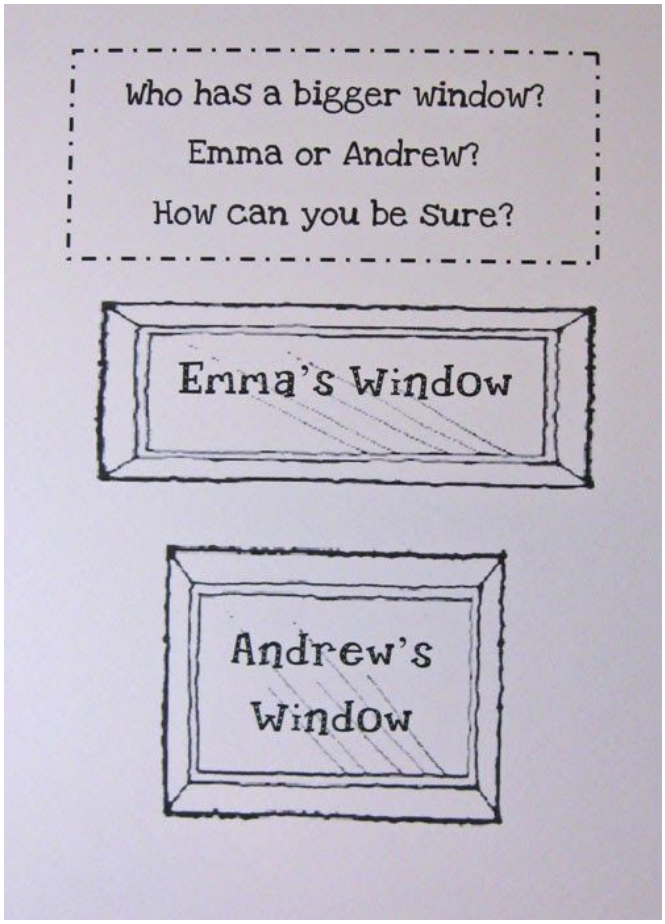
May 19

Anna's bucket is full. It holds 5 cups of beans. Jimmy's bucket can hold 8 cups of beans. If Anna pours her beans into Jimmy's cup, how many more cups of beans will they need to fill it up?

They will need_____ cups of beans to fill it up

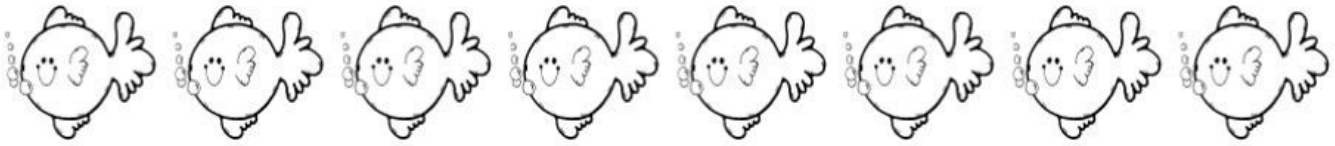
Show your thinking

May 20



Circle the bigger window. Show your thinking

May 21



Color the 1st fish blue.

Color the 4th fish red.

Color the 7th fish yellow.

Color the 3rd fish purple.

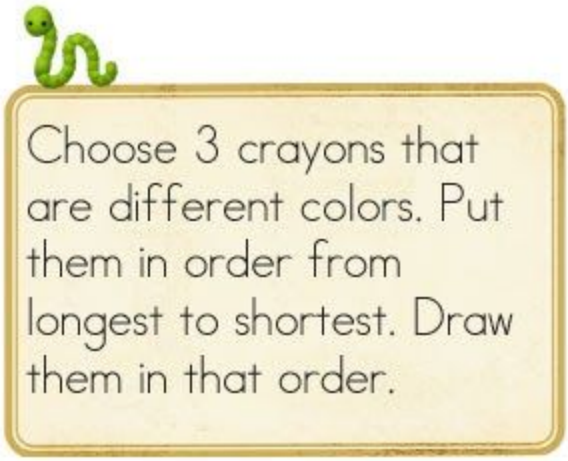
Color the 5th fish green.

Color the 8th fish orange.

Color the 6th fish pink.

The _____ fish is white.

May 22



Draw your crayons from longest to shortest

_____ _____ _____

May 25

There were 10 kids at lunch.

Some kids had white milk.

Some kids chocolate milk.

How many kids could have white milk and how many kids could have chocolate milk? Show different ways to get 10 milks using both flavors.

(example: 4 white milk, 6 chocolate milk)

Draw a picture showing one way to get 10 cartons of milk:

Write a number sentence:

May 26

Rico said these are in order from shortest to longest. Is he correct?

Rico is correct because:

Or

Rico is incorrect because:

Draw a picture to prove your answer

May 27

There are 12 seats on the ferris wheel.

4 seats are closed.

How many seats are open?

Draw a picture to show your answer

Write a number sentence:

May 28

The Squirrel has 10 acorns.

2 acorns are small.

2 acorns are medium.

The rest of his acorns are large.

How many acorns are large? _____

Draw a picture of each group of acorns:

May 29

Sam needs 10 apples to make a pie.

She has 3 red apples and 6 green apples.

How many more apples does she need?

Draw a picture to show your thinking:

Critical and Creative activities: General enrichment

https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1frqJo58n1c1uDJshyZsSvlwQEcodHNJiZ0Oa4AQMoVA/edit?usp=sharing